

2017 Eva Rosow Award Recipient

Cherie Short Stewart Title

Cherie DeVries Short is a wife, mother, aunt, daughter and grandmother and the Business Development Officer for Stewart Title-San Antonio. Cherie's real estate career began in 1985 when a CCIM broker, Ronnie Meystedt, realized she had great research and networking skills and asked her to join his team and work in the commercial real estate industry assisting him. Fast forward to 2012 Cherie joined Stewart Title Commercial team. She is active in the real estate community working with clients, both commercial and residential and she enjoys serving as co-chair of the CCIM Development Project / Embrey REFD Competition.

Cherie is a graduate of the University of Texas San Antonio with a Bachelor of Business in Finance and Marketing. Her broad work experience (and something you probably don't know) includes marketing & operations director for 35+ retail stores over the Christmas season throughout the nation.

Cherie Short is energetic, creative and passionate about real estate and her community. She is an advocate for downtown, including but not limited to HemisFair Park & HemisFair Conservancy. Did you know Cherie lived in Japan when the World's Fair was happening at HemisFair?

Cherie is a member of several local organizations, including the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), the Texas Association of REALTORS® (TAR), Real Estate

Council (RECSA), Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), San Antonio CCIM Chapter, Urban Land Institute (ULI), Centro, Hemisfair Conservancy, and Junior League's San Antonio.

The Eva Rosow Award of Excellence

The Eva Rosow Award of Excellence is an award that recognizes a female member of CREW-San Antonio who is a model of excellence to the CREW membership and the commercial real estate community. Award recipients act as mentors within our organization and are committed to enhancing positions in the field of commercial real estate. The award is named for Eva Rosow, a pioneer for women in the field of commercial real estate. Her career began in the 1930's and spanned over four decades within San Antonio.
